

Stewart Covers Most in an Hour

Phil Stewart of the Washington Running Club ran 11 miles, 811 yards in one hour to win the Washington section of the Roadrunners Club of America national one-hour postal run yesterday at Walter Johnson High School in Bethesda.

Ray Morrison, also of the Washington Running Club, covered 10 miles, 1,142 yards, to finish second and Henry Danver of the National Capital track club was third (10 miles, 867 yards). Mary Ellen Williams of the Washington Run-Hers was the top women's finisher, running eight miles, 794 yards to place 19th overall.

In a two-mile run sponsored in conjunction with the main event, Tom Gavin, unattached of Rockville, won with a time of nine minutes, 55 seconds.

Sal Corrallo of Gaithersburg won the Potomac Valley Walkers 10 mile racewalk yesterday on the Carter Rock towpath. Corrallo finished with a time of two hours 34 minutes 42 seconds, 30 seconds ahead of Tom Hamilton of Arlington. Paul Robertson of Oxon Hill was third in 2:54.23.