

4th Annual Hecht's 10-Miler, Sunday, June 7, 8:30 a.m.

Sponsored by Hecht's. Co-sponsored by adidas® and Hawaiian Tropic® with the cooperation of Washington Running Club and WPGC FM/AM

Register now for this great race, conducted for the benefit of the Big Brothers of the National Capital Area.
Join 3,000 amateur runners in what the Washington Post has termed, "running at its best." The race starts and finishes near the Carter Barron Amphitheatre, and follows a shaded but challenging course through Rock Creek Park.
Want to try it? There's still plenty of running room. Just pick up an entry form in the Men's or Juniors' Action Alive departments at any Hecht's store. Fill it out and mail it in with your entry fee. Entries are limited to the first 3,000 applicants, on a first-come, first-served basis with no exceptions. Applications are accepted unless otherwise notified.
Entry fee is $5, with part of every fee going to the Big Brothers along with matching funds from Hecht's and each of the co-sponsors.

And once you've signed up, don't miss our pre-race clinics: Friday evening, June 5, 7:30-9:00 p.m., at Hecht's Tysons Corner lower level pavilion; and,

Saturday, June 6, 1:00-3:00 p.m., at Hecht's F Street, 3rd floor Special Events Center. We'll pass out runners' race packets and official 10-Miler T-shirts.
We'll present lively "Action Alive" fashion shows for runners of all ages. And we'll have two of the nation's top amateur runners, Dan Rincon and Dave Patterson on hand with exercise and running tips for beginners and experienced runners.
They're both members of the adidas® racing team. In fact, Dan Rincon was last year's 10-Miler winner. For more information, call 626-8414.
