

Karthouser Wins AAU Open Race

Cliff Karthouser, 23, of Arlington led the Washington Running Club to the men's team championship yesterday, winning the open division of the Potomac Valley AAU 10-kilometer championship race in 32 minutes and 36 seconds at Bluemont Park in Arlington.

Jennifer White, 22, of Alexandria won the women's open title in 38:16, while Caroline Hahn of Washington took the women's master race in 44:28.

John Kennedy of Alexandria won the men's 30-39 age group (35:27), Al Marcy of Centreville took the 40-44 division (38:01), and Tony Diamond of Washington took the 45-49 men's race (37:13).

Other winners were: Herb Chisholm of Alexandria in the men's 50-59 (38:40), Bill Shafer, of Severna Park, Md. in the 60-and-over mens (48:17), 10-year old Brian Shrager of Rockville in the 17-and-under boys (49:17), and Virginia Forhan of Rockville in the 17-and-under girls (40:33).