

Stewart Wins 20-Mile Race

The Washington Post (1974-Current file); Dec 27, 1976;

ProQuest Historical Newspapers: The Washington Post (1877-1995)

pg. D6

Stewart Wins 20-Mile Race

Phil Stewart, 26, of the Washington Running Club ran an icy course in one hour 49 minutes and one second yesterday to win the Greenbelt 20-mile race at Braden Field.

Peter Nye, 29, also of the Washington Running Club, took second in 1:55:30. Connie Junghans of the D.C. Road Runners was the first female finisher in 2:28:04.

In a 10-mile race, Jeff Peterson and Tony Keener, both of the D.C. Road Runners, placed first and second, 10 seconds apart. Peterson won in 54.41. Hannah Howe, 12, of the Washington Running Club led all female finishers in 1:06:53.

Carl Schueler, Sal Corrallo and Tom Hamilton, all of the Capitol Walkers, placed 1-2-3 in a 10-mile walk race. Schueler's winning time was 1:21:39.